The BTS Strategic Execution Framework

Translating strategy into action is a critical issue for every leader today. Working with world-class companies, BTS has identified and addressed three core elements to enable successful execution – alignment, mindset and capabilities.

Alignment: Employees need to clearly understand their company's strategic direction and priorities. This includes a deep understanding of what the strategy is, why it is important, and how it will be implemented.

Mindset: Successful execution requires collaboration and commitment. To accelerate execution, individuals need to be engaged and passionate about the strategy. Connecting the strategy to personal success is critical.

Capabilities: Companies that excel in execution invest heavily in building the skills and capabilities necessary for execution. These include but are not limited to business acumen, leadership, sales and project management.
